Brookhaven, MS - On Friday, April 28, 2017, agents of the Alcoholic Beverage Control (ABC), assisted by Mississippi Bureau of Narcotics (MBN), Mississippi Highway Patrol (MHP), and Southwest Mississippi Narcotics Enforcement Unit (SMNEU), executed a search warrant at the Oasis Club located at 119 Martin Ave., Brookhaven, MS that resulted in the arrest of the business owner and two bartenders.

The Oasis Club was having an event and charging attendees at the door for liquor and beer; however, the Club did not have a beer permit nor alcoholic beverage permit issued by the State of Mississippi. ABC agents seized 282 bottles of beer, 29 bottles of liquor, and 2 firearms. MBN agents seized a small amount of marijuana.

The following persons were charged and released with a citation pending their initial appearance in Lincoln County Justice Court on May 16, 2017.

- Owner of the business, David Lee Holloway, 45, of 701 South Railroad Avenue, Brookhaven, MS was charged with possession of alcohol with intent to sell without an ABC permit, and for possession of beer and light wine for sale without a beer permit.
- Tamika Denitte Smith, 41, of 908 Forrest Drive, Brookhaven, MS was charged with the sale or distribution of alcoholic beverages without an ABC permit.
- Kenya Essie Henderson, 43, of 122 East Chippewa Street, Brookhaven, MS was charged with the sale of beer without a permit.
