

— DEPARTMENT OF —
REVENUE
STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

Offer in Compromise Agreement

For individuals who are not self-employed.

An Offer in Compromise is an agreement to settle a tax debt for less than the full amount owed. The goal of the Offer in Compromise program is to achieve a compromise that is in the best interest of both the taxpayer and the State of Mississippi. To be considered, you must make an appropriate offer based on what the Department of Revenue considers your ability to pay.

Submitting this application does not ensure that your offer will be accepted. If your offer is not accepted, the initial payment sent with this application will be applied to your tax debt. You cannot appeal this decision.

Eligibility:

- Before your offer may be considered, you must file all tax returns that you are legally required to file. After you file your offer, you must continue to timely file and pay all required tax returns.
- You are not eligible to apply if you or your business are in an open bankruptcy proceeding.
- An offer will not be accepted if you can pay your tax debt in full or through a payment plan or equity in assets.
- An offer will not be accepted for any tax debt less than 4 years old or for debt that is less than $3,000.
- You are not eligible for consideration if you or your business collected, but did not pay, Trust Fund taxes.
- An offer will not be accepted if your debt is the result of criminal activity.
- A history of regular or willful noncompliance with Mississippi's state tax laws may constitute grounds for rejection of your offer.
- Your offer will be declined if you do not provide sufficient documentation to support income, expenses, and other items claimed.
- Your offer will be rejected if you omit income, assets or other items of significance.
- Persons with a previous offer in compromise for another tax liability with the State are not eligible for a second compromise.
- The offer will be declined in any instance where the Commissioner or the Governor determines that acceptance is not in the best interest of the State.
- Incomplete applications will not be accepted. If the application form is not complete, the Commissioner may disregard your application.

Instructions for completing form:

- Clearly print or type your response for each item requested.
- Complete all lines. If a question does not apply, you may write "n/a" or zero on the line to indicate that the question is non-applicable.
- Attach additional sheets if more space is needed to fully answer any question.
- Mail your completed application to the address below. In lieu of mailing, you may hand-deliver the completed application to the Department of Revenue District Office closest to you. Office addresses are found on the DOR website under the "contact" section. www.dor.ms.gov

- A non-refundable payment of $100, or 20% of the offer, whichever is greater, is required to accompany the application for an Offer in Compromise. This payment will be applied toward your liability regardless of whether the Offer in Compromise is accepted. Other payments made prior to an acceptance of the Offer in Compromise will not be considered as payments made toward the compromised amount.

The Department will notify you in writing if your offer is accepted or denied. Payment of the accepted offer must be made by the payment due date indicated on the acceptance letter. Tax liens will be released only after an offer is accepted and the amount offered is paid in full.

General Information

Legal Authority for Offer in Compromise.

The Governor, on the advice of the Commissioner of Revenue, may settle any doubtful claim of the State of Mississippi for taxes collected by the Department of Revenue after application by the debtor proposing a compromise of the debt. See Miss. Code Ann. Section 31-19-29. A doubtful claim includes finally determined tax liabilities enrolled as a lien on the Mississippi Uniform State Tax Lien Registry and the collection of which has not occurred through the ordinary collection process. See Miss. Code Ann. Section 31-19-27.

Commissioner's Responsibility.

The Commissioner of Revenue is charged with determining and collecting the actual amount of tax due from Mississippi taxpayers, and accepting an amount less than the liability will only occur in extraordinary circumstances. An offer must be based on the taxpayer's true ability to pay. Any offer below what the taxpayer can actually pay will be rejected. To keep this process as open and transparent as possible, a waiver will be required eliminating the protection of the confidentiality provisions of the Mississippi Code for all documents reviewed in determining whether or not to recommend compromise to the Governor.

Down Payment with Application.

Payment of twenty percent (20%) of the offer or one hundred dollars ($100.00), whichever is greater, is required to accompany any application for an Offer in Compromise. This payment will be applied toward the taxpayer's liability regardless of whether the Offer in Compromise is accepted.

Confidentiality.

An approved Offer in Compromise is not protected by the confidentiality provisions of Mississippi Tax Law. In order for the Governor to settle a doubtful claim, the Department must provide the Governor and/or Governor's Staff with sufficient information to demonstrate that the Offer is in the best interest of the State. The Department will redact any social security or employer identification numbers before providing such information; however, this documentation will include your financial information and other personally identifying information. For this reason, a signed "Waiver and Authorization to Release Confidential Taxpayer Information" must be included with the completed Offer in Compromise application form.

Trust Fund Taxes.

Your offer may be rejected if your debt is based on taxes collected from others, but not remitted to the Department as required by law. Trust Fund taxes include sales tax charged and collected from your customers and income taxes withheld from your employee's wages.

Criminal Violations.

An offer cannot be accepted for liabilities that resulted from criminal activity including, but not limited to, tax evasion and tax fraud. The State cannot compromise any restitution amount ordered by a court.

Documentation.

You are required to provide reasonable documentation of your financial condition and ability to pay with your request for an offer. A complete review of your current financial situation will be conducted as a part of the offer process so it is incumbent that you include all supporting documentation with your application. A checklist is found on page 7 and notes are included with certain questions. You should make copies of all documents submitted to the Department for your records. Do not send original copies with your offer in compromise to the Department since they will not be returned.

Offer Submission Does Not Delay Collection Activities.

Collection efforts are not suspended upon the making of an Offer in Compromise. State tax liens are not released until the Offer is accepted and the amount offered is paid in full. Interest and penalty continue to accrue on any unpaid tax debt while the offer is being considered. Any installment payment arrangement already in effect will be continued while the offer is considered. The Department will keep any refund, including interest, that might be due for tax periods extending through the calendar year of the offer. The refund may not be applied to estimated tax payments for the following year or the accepted offer amount.

Review.

In determining the amount acceptable to compromise your tax liability, the Commissioner will conduct a thorough examination to ensure that you accurately included all assets and income and that you claimed only the necessary expenses allowable for the health and welfare of you and your family, or to provide for production of income. It is important that you fully complete the application form accurately and honestly. Your request may be denied if the information is not complete or if you did not disclose all assets or income. To be sure that no allowable expenses are missed, taxpayers should include current information about all of their expenses in the application. The Department will review the information to verify that the taxpayer is being given credit for all allowable expenses

Amount of Offer.

The minimum offer amount should be your monthly disposable income multiplied by twelve (12), plus the market value of your assets. Monthly disposable income is calculated by subtracting monthly allowable expense from monthly total income. Total monthly income includes salaries, monthly pensions, social security, dividends, profit from business, alimony, child support, commissions and any other income sources. Your current market value of assets is the reasonable amount that you expect to be paid for the asset if you sold it, less the current balance due on loan(s) or mortgage(s).

Assets Not Included in Computation.

All assets must be listed on the Offer In Compromise application; but, the following assets are not required to be included in the calculation for the Offer In Compromise.

- Homestead of up to $75,000 in equity.
- Vehicle, not to exceed $10,000 in equity per vehicle per taxpayer.
- Personal Property not to exceed $10,000 in value including clothing; furniture and Appliances; 1 Television and 1 Radio; 1 Firearm; 1 Lawn mower; linens, china, and kitchenware; wedding rings; health aids or any single item of personal property worth less than $100.

Personal Expense.

Allowed expenses are those needed to provide for you and your family's health and well-being. Necessary living expenses include, but are not limited to, rent or mortgage payments; heat or air conditioning; transportation necessary for work or required travel; medical expenses; reasonable food expenses. Expenses related to luxury items such as private school tuition, boat payments and insurance, luxury car payments and insurance, etc. will not be allowed.

Excessive Household Expense.

Excessive expenses for food, housekeeping supplies, apparel & services, etc. will not be allowed. The taxpayer should provide documentation to substantiate any unusual expenses explaining why such are necessary living expenses.

Responsible Person Sales or Withholding.

In some cases an individual taxpayer may have a personal liability as a "responsible person" for the tax debts of a corporation, partnership or other business entity. A person who has purchased a business that owes state withholding and sales taxes may also be responsible for some or all of those taxes if the buyer has failed to set aside money from the purchase price.

An individual who is jointly responsible for a business liability will not be relieved of the joint liability unless the business entity no longer exists. If the business entity is still in existence, then such entity must also apply for an Offer in Compromise.

Page 3. All applicants complete this page. Mark the tax type and list the amount and tax period of the debt that you are requesting compromise.

"Tax liability" means all of the tax, interest, and penalties owed by the taxpayer. In some cases, it may also include certain fees and costs.

List all unpaid tax liabilities you wish to compromise. You may not submit an offer for a tax year or period less than 4 years old. Your total liabilities must be more than $3,000. You may review your unpaid liabilities on your TAP (Taxpayer Access Point) online account or on a Statement of Accounts.

2. Mark "yes" if you can borrow the funds to pay this debt or any part of this debt. Provide the amount you are able to pay with this application. If you mark "no," include at least two denials of loan applications from financial institutions. The loan applications must be for the purpose of paying this tax debt and not for another purpose (such as an auto loan.)
3. Mark "yes" if you have funds in bank accounts, retirement accounts, or the cash value of a life insurance policy that could pay this debt. Provide the balance information on Page 7 for each.

10. You may use the Offer Calculation Worksheet on page 10 of the application form to assist you in determining the offer amount. The Department will use a worksheet similar to this when reviewing your offer amount. All offer amounts must exceed zero. The amount must not include any amount which has already been paid or collected on the liability. Your disposable income is determined by subtracting expenses from total income. Your current market value of assets is the reasonable amount that you expect to be paid for the asset if you sold it, less the current balance due on loan(s) or mortgage(s).
11. Mark "yes" if you are borrowing the money to pay this amount. If you check "no," explain how you will pay the offer. Explain where you will obtain the money to pay your offer.
12. Explain how you determined the amount of the offer.

Page 4. List all sources of income for both you and your spouse, if married, even if your spouse is not liable for the obligations that you seek to compromise. It is necessary to see where all household income comes from and who is paying the expenses in order to assess your ability to pay. This includes members of the household who may not be liable for the tax debt.

If the vehicle is paid for, enter "paid" on monthly payment line. Attach additional pages if needed.

Page 5. List all debts and monthly expenses. For credit cards, bank loans etc., List the type of account, credit limit and credit available along with the current balance.
